

Dr. Ivett Castro

Dr. Castro grew up in San Salvador, El Salvador. She graduated from the Universidad Evangelica de El Salvador with a degree in Doctor in Dental Surgery. After she immigrated to the United States; Dr. Castro was accepted to attend The University of Southern California; where she once again received the Doctor in Dental Surgery degree. After graduation, Dr. Castro joined private practice and became a part-time faculty at the University of Southern California. In order to fulfill her passion for the field of endodontics, she returned to University of Southern California to become an endodontist. After graduation, Dr. Castro and her husband relocated to the Minnesota to enjoy proximity to her parents. After 3 years of working in a south metro group practice, Dr. Castro move to White Bear Lake to run her own Endodontics practice.