"Exploring for Excellence"

Pat Johns is CEO of Parallel Partners, a corporate performance firm. He is a keynote speaker and author, a licensed Traction/EOS facilitator, a global adventurer, and international photo-journalist, an expert in motivation, and a visionary strategic planner. As a journalist his photos and articles have been published internationally in a variety of magazines. His programs carry an endorsement from the Director of the Smithsonian Institute and he is a sponsored member of the Society for Neuroscience.

Mr. Pat Johns

The Power of the 5 C's

Exploring for Excellence: How to become your very best in your life, family, work, and community:

- The importance of leaving your comfort zone.
- The benefits of making firm commitments with others to achieve shared goals.
- The power of making true connections and building trust.
- How to use common sense to accelerate the process.
- Why compassion will be the game-changer in your life.

Program Synopsis

Exploring for Excellence is a colorful and inspiring presentation. You will be awed. Are you highly motivated to accomplish your greatest dreams? You will be after seeing this program. While Pat's slides take you on a pictorial journey to an altitude of 14,000 feet, with stunning mountains and interesting people; it really is about what it takes to find the motivation to be your best. If you've ever been to the Himalayas, you will love the reflection. Or, if you've always wanted to see the world's tallest mountains and hear a compelling story, come join us for an amazing evening.

Team Appreciation Night

Salute your team members. Let your team be proud of their doctor(s).

Drawing for raffle prizes will be held. Lots of great prizes to be given away.

Educate. Celebrate.
