Northwest Dentistry

A publication of the Minnesota Dental Association, Northwest Dentistry serves as the main source for dental news in Minnesota. Over 70 percent of Minnesota's dentists are members of the Minnesota Dental Association.

Reaching over 3,400 dentists, dental community members and dental students each month, advertising in the Northwest Dentistry Journal is a great way to introduce your company to thousands of potential customers.

Winner of numerous Dental Journalism Awards from the International College of Dentists, Northwest Dentistry is the publication dentists and their staff in Minnesota and the surrounding area trust for the latest clinical research, practice management and regulatory issues guidance articles. Our readers look to our journal to provide news and information on trends affecting all aspects of dental practice, including rules, regulations and legislation.

Published six times a year, Northwest Dentistry is mailed to all Minnesota Dental Association members throughout the state of Minnesota. In addition to Minnesota Dental Association members, faculty at the University of Minnesota - School of Dentistry, and other dental professionals across the United States also hold subscriptions to Northwest Dentistry. Each issue features clinical and practice management feature articles, in addition to other editorial content, research reports and news from district dental societies.

After publication, copies of the journal are always accessible in digital form on our website.

Advertising Standards & Requirements

The publisher, the Minnesota Dental Association's Editorial Advisory Board, or its designated agent, shall determine whether an advertisement or sponsor meets the advertising standards and requirements below and reserves the right to refuse any advertisement.

Advertising in Northwest Dentistry is required to conform to the following standards and requirements:

- * Advertising text material or illustrations shall not be blatant, in bad taste, or derogatory of other products or services, nor make exaggerated claims or misleading statements.
- * Products or services to be advertised must be related to dental practice, the activities of dental organizations, or of interest to dentists and their families as a whole.
- * The advertising of any product used in the course of dental treatment that has not been accepted either by the American Dental Association Council on Dental Materials, Instruments and Equipment or the American Dental Association Council on Dental Therapeutics may be rejected for publication.
- * Advertising shall not include products which do not meet the standards of the Federal Trade Commission or the Food and Drug Administration.
- * Advertising by a dental laboratory shall not attempt to induce or entice a dentist to neglect professional responsibility or to delegate this responsibility to a person not legally licensed to assume it.
- * Advertising to announce non-professional activities will be accepted only from the American Dental Association; its constituent or component organizations; recognized national, international, state or local dental or dental auxiliary organizations; an accredited college, university or other institution of higher learning; national, international, state or local societies for specialty areas of dental practice recognized by the American Dental Association.
- * Advertising for educational courses of study for dentists or dental auxiliaries will be accepted if presented under the auspices of the American Dental Association; its constituent or component organizations; an accredited college, university or other institution of higher learning; recognized national, international, state or local dental or dental auxiliary organizations; the recognized national certifying boards, or national, international, state or local societies for specialty areas of dental practice recognized by the American Dental Association. Advertising for a course of study which is not presented as above, but which has received approval for continuing education credit by the Minnesota Board of Dentistry, is also acceptable provided that it meets the other criteria herein.
- * The advertiser agrees to hold harmless the publisher and its agents for any and all claims against the advertiser or the publisher resulting from any advertisement published in Northwest Dentistry at the direction of the advertiser.
- * If new copy does not arrive by closing date, preceding advertisement will be repeated.
- * Cancellations must be received via email prior to the closing date.
- * Frequency contracts not fulfilled are subject to short-rate billing at three-time or one-time rate, based on number of consecutive insertions. Pro-rate options to six-time rate upon renewal of contract if issues have been placed.
- * Digital artwork is archived for approximately three years unless otherwise instructed.
- * Discounts may not be combined. To receive vendor discount, a 2017 SON contract be signed and in place or be a current MDA Endorsed Vendor. Companies must be represented by a legitimate agency to receive discount.

Indemnity Clause

The publisher is not responsible for errors in advertisements. Advertisers and advertising agencies assume liability for all content (including text, representations and illustrations) or advertisements printed, and also assume responsibility for claims arising from such advertisements made against the publisher.

The publisher is not liable for any failure to print, publish or circulate all or any portion of any issue in which an advertisement accepted by the publisher is contained if such failure is due to acts of government, suppliers, USPS, mother nature, or other circumstances beyond the publisher's control.

The publisher and its employees will not be held responsible for losses or expenses resulting from the publication of advertisements, including but not limited to, claims or suit for libel, violation of right of privacy, copyright infringement or plagiarism.

Payment Terms

Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date. If payment is not received within 30 days, a new invoice will be issued with a cancellation of any discount that may have been applied, as well as a 2% late penalty. If payment has not been received in 60 days, an additional 2% late penalty will be assessed. All invoices will be mailed. Credit card information is not kept on file.
