James Q. Swift, DDS, is Professor in the Division of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery at the University of Minnesota School of Dentistry. He is a graduate of Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, IA, the University of Iowa College of Dentistry and completed a General Practice Residency at Oklahoma Children's Memorial Hospital. He completed his oral and maxillofacial surgery residency training program at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center.

Dr. Swift will speak on current hot button topics in dentistry including ABX prophylaxis for dental procedures, communicating current recommendations to patients and medical providers, Bisphosphonate Related Osteonecrosis of the Jaw, current research, contraindications for surgery, alternative treatment, treatment of complications, hyperbaric oxygen, Implant liability, and other important aspects in oral medicine and oral surgery.

Dr Self earned his DDS degree from the University of Minnesota's School of Dentistry, and a MBA from the University of Minnesota's Carlson School of Management. Dr Karl Self joined the faculty of the University of Minnesota School of Dentistry in 2006 and in January of 2010, he was selected to be the Director of the newly created Division of Dental Therapy. In addition to managing all aspects of the implementation of this program, he is engaged in teaching dental, dental therapy, and dental hygiene students. His research interests include access to care issues, health care disparities, and workforce issues.

Dr. Self will speak on past, present, and future initiatives, best business models or current business models that are having an impact, what does the legislation actually say, working with the board and how to employ a DT.
